

Volunteer Clothes & Bric-a-brac Sorter

Join our friendly team, meet new people and do some good.

Could you help us? We need volunteers to help prepare donated clothes and bric-a-brac, ready for sale in our second-hand charity shop on Red Lane in Coventry.

We're looking for more enthusiastic volunteers to join our friendly team. We'll give you full training.

About the Role

- Help us sort through clothes and small homeware items that people have donated, preparing them for the shop floor.
- Opportunity to help us with displaying stock, ready for our customers.
- Flexible days and hours to suit you, during our shop opening times Tuesday to Saturday 10am – 4pm. Even a few hours every week or so, on a regular basis, would make a big difference.
- All training provided.

Will this role suit you? Sorting Volunteers...

- Enjoy using their own initiative.
- Are happy to follow direction from managers when needed.
- Are enthusiastic, reliable and proactive.
- Are able to work together with other volunteers and companions (the people our charity supports).

How will you benefit?

- Gain a sense of purpose and achievement.
- Learn new, transferable skills and enhance your CV.
- You'll get a 20% Volunteer Discount at our Emmaus shop.
- We'll train you up in Customer Service, Health & Safety and Manual Handling.
- Lunch is provided.
- Travel expenses refunded.

Location:

- Based at our Emmaus shop, 70 Red Lane, Coventry CV6 5EQ

Find out more and apply

If you want any more information then please call Falishia on 02476 651094/ 07739323539 or email Falishia.channer@emmaus.org.uk

You can apply for this role now by completing our Volunteer Application Form, available to download in the 'Volunteer with us' section of our website.