Leaving a gift to Emmaus in your Will

Thank you for your interest in leaving a gift to Emmaus Leicestershire & Rutland in your Will.

Gifts in Wills are a vital source of funds for Emmaus and will help us support the development of our community in the years ahead. Therefore, by leaving a gift in your Will you can be sure that you will continue to offer hundreds of people who have experienced homelessness the chance to make a new start, even after your lifetime.

This leaflet explains the impact your gift can have, the different types of gift you can leave and a few important things to consider when leaving a gift in your Will to Emmaus Leicestershire & Rutland.

Did you know you can leave as little as 1% of your estate to Emmaus?

For many who experience homelessness, loss of self-esteem is a major obstacle they must overcome. People who live in our community carry out work experience in the charity's social enterprise, making a real contribution. As well as a stable home for as long as they need it, Emmaus provides a purpose and a chance to make a difference.

Previous gifts in Wills have been used to fund:

Housing for companions to move in to

Additional companion bedrooms in communities

Types of Gift:

Residuary - a share of your estate after any debts, gifts for loved ones and administration expenses have been paid

Pecuniary - a specified sum of money detailed in your Will

Specific - a named item, asset or possession that you choose to leave in your Will

If you are able to give a residuary gift, these are very valuable to Emmaus.

Whichever way you decide to help us, please accept our warmest thanks for your ongoing support.

Things to consider

If you are thinking of leaving a gift in your Will to Emmaus we strongly recommend that you seek the guidance of a solicitor when you make your Will or codicil, to ensure that your intentions can be fully carried out.
